Should the Lodge neglect so to do, any brother who has not been registered may apply to the Grand Secretary who, on proof being produced that he has paid the full fees of his Lodge, shall give him a certificate which shall entitle him to enjoy the full privileges of the Craft, and the offending Lodge shall be reported to Grand Lodge and shall be proceeded against for neglecting to make the proper return, and for retaining moneys which are the property of Grand Lodge.

210. The Lodge shall obtain for every brother initiated therein, when raised, a Grand Lodge certificate which shall be paid for by the Lodge.

211. No higher degree of Masonry shall be conferred on any brother at a shorter interval than four weeks from the date of his receiving a previous degree, except under dispensation from the Grand Master, nor in any case until he shall have passed an examination in open Lodge in such previous degree.

212. If a Mason shall have been elected to receive the three degrees, and shall have received the first degree or the first and second degrees in one Lodge, he may, at the request of such Lodge, and on its behalf and without additional fees, receive the remaining degree or degrees in another Lodge practising the same work. No petition, reference or ballot will be necessary. A Lodge shall not confer the F.C. or M.M. degrees or both degrees, on a member of another Lodge from a sister jurisdiction until the standing of such Lodge has been certified to by the Grand Secretary.

Affiliation

213. A brother shall not be admitted a member of a Lodge except upon petition, in the prescribed form, signed by the applicant with his full name, and accompanied by a dimit or certificate of standing of the petitioner and presented in open Lodge at a regular meeting, nor unless notice of his name, occupation and place of abode, and the name and number of the Lodge of which he is or was last a member shall have been embodied in the summons for the regular meeting, at which the application shall be considered, nor until he has been balloted for as hereinafter provided. All such dimits or certificates of standing must be filed with the Grand Secretary if and when accepted.

214. Every petition for affiliation shall be recommended by at least two members of the Lodge, Master Masons in good standing, and shall be referred to a committee of three or more appointed by the Master, which committee shall report to the Lodge at a regular meeting held after the lapse of not less than eight weeks, and before the ballot is taken, and should the report be unfavorable, the applicant shall be declared rejected without a ballot.

215. An application for affiliation shall not be received by any Lodge from a brother beneath the degree of a Master Mason, unless such brother present a dimit from a sister jurisdiction which authorizes the granting of dimits to members in the other degrees.

216. When a Lodge becomes extinct, any member thereof shall be eligible to be proposed for membership in and admitted a member of another Lodge on producing a certificate from the Grand Secretary stating the fact and specifying that the brother has been registered and that his dues are paid.

217. If any member shall be suspended from his Lodge, or shall withdraw from it without having complied with its by-laws or with the general regulations of the Craft, he shall not be eligible for admission to any other Lodge.

218. An applicant for affiliation who has been rejected, may apply again to the same or any other Lodge without waiting for any specified time.

Dimits

219. Application for a dimit shall be made in writing and signed by the applicant. The application shall be presented at the next regular meeting of the Lodge, when, if the applicant's dues are paid and no charges are pending against him, the dimit shall be granted. Provided always that if a member whose dues are in arrears or whose dues have been remitted, wishes to resign, he may apply for a dimit which may be granted by resolution of the Lodge. In the case of a member whose dues are in arrears the certificate of dismission granted must state the amount of the member's indebtedness at the date of its issue. Should the indebtedness be paid in full within twelve months, a clear dimit may be issued or the member may again assume active membership as he may desire. If at the expiration of twelve months he should desire to pay such arrears and assume active membership in the same lodge, he may be reinstated by a majority vote taken by means of a written ballot; the petition must be presented at a regular meeting of the lodge, and cannot be acted upon until the next regular meeting, nor until notice of such petition has been inserted in the notice calling the meeting, Should he wish to join another Lodge in this Jurisdiction, other than that issuing the Dimit, an application for affiliation will be required. The Lodge accepting the same will be responsible to the Lodge which issued the dimit for the amount of the indebtedness shown on it. In the case of a member whose dues have been remitted, the certificate of dimission shall state the fact and the amount of the dues which were so remitted.

220. A dimit shall date from the Lodge record when the same was granted and membership shall cease from and after that date.

221. The brother dimitted shall be entitled to a certificate but should the Secretary neglect to furnish it or the brother refuse to receive the same, such neglect or refusal shall not, in any way, invalidate the joint action of the applicant and the Lodge.

222. If any brother shall lose the certificate of his dimission the Secretary of the Lodge shall, upon request and satisfactory proof of such loss, furnish him another certificate with the original date and the fact of re-issuance, which shall be entered upon the record.

223. A dimit shall not be granted to any brother beneath the degree of a Master Mason.

Visitors

224. A brother in good standing, properly vouched for, may visit a Lodge in the discretion of the Master, provided that if objection be made by a member of the Lodge in good standing, the visitor shall not be admitted.

225. A visitor shall not be admitted into a Lodge unless he is personally vouched for by one member of the Craft, or if unknown, after due examination by two or more members present, nor until he shall have entered his name, Masonic rank, the name of his mother Lodge or the Lodge from which he hails, in a book to be kept by every Lodge for that purpose. During his continuance in the Lodge he is subject to its by-laws.

Life Membership

226. Lodges may admit their members other than honorary members to life membership, on such terms as they may determine, but shall nevertheless continue to pay to Grand Lodge the annual dues for such members. Notice of the proposal to elect a brother to life membership shall be given at one regular communication and placed on the notice for the next regular meeting.

227. Life members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Lodge, and shall be amenable to discipline in the same manner as ordinary members.

Honorary Life Membership

228. A Lodge by ballot may confer honorary life membership upon a brother in good standing, either within or without the jurisdiction, who may have rendered service so the Craft in general or to such Lodge, provided his consent thereto has first been obtained. Notice of the proposal to elect a brother to honorary life membership shall be given at one regular communication and placed on the notice for the next. If the brother is already a member of the Lodge, a majority vote is sufficient, otherwise a unanimous vote is required. The Lodge must include honorary life members in its returns to Grand Lodge and in case of honorary life membership conferred upon a member of this jurisdiction pay to Grand Lodge such dues as are payable for ordinary members, and in case of honorary life membership conferred upon a member without this jurisdiction, a registration fee of $5.00 only. A Lodge under dispensation cannot elect honorary life members.

229. Honorary life membership does not confer the right to vote except in case of such membership conferred upon one already a member of the Lodge by initiation or affiliation.

Non-Payment of Dues

230. A Lodge shall have power to enact by-laws requiring the payment of Lodge dues.

231. All annual dues of members of Constituent Lodges shall be due and payable in advance on the first day of January in each year.

All members of a Constituent Lodge, who, on the 31st day of December, 1936, or on the 31st day of December in any year thereafter, owe unpaid dues for more than one year, shall be, and shall be deemed then suspended ipso facto, provided, however, that by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting of the Lodge before such suspension shall take effect, the Lodge may, on a recommendation in writing signed by the following officers of the Lodge viz., the Master, the Wardens, the Treasurer and the Secretary, remit one or more years of such dues and such remission shall be deemed payment on account.

233. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of each Constituent Lodge to send during the month of November in each year, a special notice to all members who then owe more than one year's dues, notifying them that they will be suspended under the provisions of the next preceding section, if on the 31st day of December next thereafter they still owe dues for more than one year.

234. In the event of the suspension of any member it shall be the further duty of the Secretary, before the 15th day of January thereafter, to notify by registered letter the suspended members of his suspension, and if a dual member, to also notify the other Lodge. The names of all brethren so suspended shall be read in open Lodge at the regular meeting next following such suspension.

235. Suspensions as aforesaid shall take effect, notwithstanding failure to send out any notice or to read out the names of suspended members.

236. A brother suspended for non-payment of dues shall be immediately restored without a ballot upon payment within one year from the date of suspension of all arrears owing at the time of his suspension and such further sum, if any, as the Lodge may require not exceeding the amount of regular Lodge dues for the period he was suspended.

237. If such payment be not made within one year from the date of suspension, he can only be reinstated by a majority vote taken by means of written ballots. The petition must be presented at a regular meeting of the Lodge and cannot be acted upon before the next regular meeting, nor until notice of such petition has been inserted in the notice calling the meeting. On a petition for reinstatement being presented the Master shall appoint a committee to inquire into the character of the applicant and any other matters relevant to the petition and report thereon to the Lodge at the next regular meeting. If the report of the committee is favorable, a ballot shall be taken as hereinbefore provided, but if the report of the committee is unfavorable, the applicant shall be declared rejected.

238. When a Mason is suspended for non-payment of dues, in this or any other jurisdiction, he is, during such suspension, deprived of all privileges of Masonry in this jurisdiction. A Mason under suspension is not entitled to receive Masonic charity or Masonic burial.

celled, all of its property real and personal and every kind shall ipso facto become the property of Grand Lodge.

246. Every Lodge has jurisdiction over all its own members wherever they may reside. Each Lodge has jurisdiction over all Masons, whether affiliated or not, resident within its territorial limits.

247. Any non-affiliated Mason, who having resided one year within this jurisdiction, shall refuse or neglect to make application for membership to some Lodge therein, shall not be entitled to the benefit of the Benevolent Fund, or to Masonic burial, or to take part in any Masonic ceremony, public or private, or to any Masonic privilege whatever, nor can he be permitted to visit any one Lodge in the town or place where he resides more than twice during his secession from the Craft.

248. A Lodge cannot deprive a member of his privileges until after due trial and conviction in strict conformity with the rules prescribed by Grand Lodge.

251. A Lodge may by resolution ask permission to surrender its charter or dispensation. Notice of this resolution must have been given at a regular meeting at which it is proposed to take action. The resolution must be supported by at least three-fourths of the votes cast by the members present when the vote is taken, before the Master can declare its adoption. Amalgamation of Lodges

256. Two or more Lodges may amalgamate under one warrant. Each lodge must adopt a resolution to that effect, and each must appoint a committee of three members to arrange the terms therefor. Notice of such resolution shall be given at a preceding meeting in each Lodge.

257. The report of the committee, if favorable, shall recommend for adoption the name and number of one of the Lodges and the time and place for such amalgamation. On the approval of the report of the committee by the Lodges a copy thereof shall be mailed to the last known address of each member of said Lodges about to be amalgamated, and unless seven or more members of each of the Lodges notify the Secretary of their Lodge, in writing of the objection to such amalgamation, within ten days from the date of mailing such notices, it shall be carried into effect as soon as the Grand Master shall approve of such amalgamation. ed to the Grand Secretary within one month after the amalgamation. Every member of any of the Lodges amalgamated shall be a member of the amalgamated Lodge, but any member may pay all his dues and withdraw before such amalgamation has been effected. Any member under suspension for any cause shall have the same rights in the amalgamated Lodge as he would have had in his own Lodge had such amalgamation not taken place.

Every application for a dispensation to form a new Lodge must be made by petition, which on application will be supplied by the Grand Secretary, and the same shall be signed by at least seven Master Masons in good standing, residing in this jurisdiction and giving the name and number of the Lodge to which they respectively belong. The petition must be recommended by the nearest Lodge, or where there are two or more Lodges meeting in the same town or city, then by a majority of said Lodges, when the petition accompanied by the written recommendation or recommendations shall be transmitted to the District Deputy Grand Master, who is to forward it, with his recommendation or opinion thereon, to the Grand Secretary to be submitted to the Grand Master. If the prayer of the petition be granted, the Grand Master may issue a dispensation authorizing the brethren to meet as a Lodge until the 15th day of May, preceding the date of the next Annual Communication when the dispensation, together with the historical and Tyler's registers and minute book shall be returned to the Grand Secretary. Upon the presentation of a petition for a charter and on receipt of a certificate from the District Deputy Grand Master, certifying that the proposed Master and Wardens of the Lodge under dispensation are fully competent to confer the three degrees of Masonry, and should an examination of their books and records prove satisfactory, Grand Lodge may order the issue of a charter to such Lodge and assign it such name (which shall not be the name of a living person) and number on the register as shall be deemed proper and such Lodge shall be duly constituted as soon as convenient by the Grand Master or a representative appointed by him for that purpose.

264. A warrant for a new Lodge shall not be granted until there is furnished by the District Deputy Grand Master a certificate to the effect that the Lodge, which has been working under dispensation, is provided with suitable Lodge premises, furniture and regalia.

Installation of the Officers of a Lodge

General Directions

(It is highly desirable that this ceremony shall be conducted without the aid of a book.)

The installation of the Officers of a new Lodge follows after the ceremony of Constitution and is conducted by the Grand Master or his representative. In an old Lodge it is the right of every Master, subject to the prerogative of the Grand Master, to install his successor or to cause him to be installed. The Installing Officer must be assisted by at least two installed Masters, one of whom shall act as Director of Ceremonies. The newly installed Master may invest the other officers of the Lodge or these duties may be fulfilled by the Installing Officer.

Two or more Lodges may by resolution hold the installation and investiture of officers in the same Lodge room and for such purpose shall bring the minute books, by-laws and warrants to the place of Installation.

(See section 151 of the Constitution.)

The Director of Ceremonies will see that the jewels of the officers to be installed, the rods and sword, together with a small Bible, square and compasses, a Constitution, the Charter, and a copy of the Lodge by-laws are placed on a table, so arranged that he can promptly hand them to the Installing Officer when required.

The Lodge is opened in the third degree (or severally in the first, second and third degrees.)

RECEPTION OF VISITORS

Ceremonies to be Observed When a Grand Officer Visits a Lodge

When the Worshipful Master is informed that a Grand Officer or Past Grand Officer (elective) of this Grand Lodge, or a Grand Officer or Past Grand Officer (elective) of a Grand Lodge recognized by this Grand Lodge intends to visit the Lodge, he shall ascertain from him, informally, whether he desires to be received without form or in form. It is not necessary that any formal announcement of the presence of the Grand Officer be made before he presents himself at the door. The Worshipful Master, being informed as to the pleasure of the visiting officer, will then proceed in the manner following:

Reception in Form

In this case, the officers will be directed by the Worshipful Master to attend on the visiting Grand Officer. If it be the Grand Master, or the Deputy Grand Master exercising the powers of Grand Master, he is to be preceded by two Stewards with white rods, and is to be supported on either hand by the Deacons with rods. If it be any other elective Grand Officer, he is to be preceded by two Stewards with rods. If any other Grand Officers are present with the chief visiting Grand Officer, they will take their appropriate places in the procession. Visiting brethren, not officers, who may accompany the visiting Grand Officer, will follow the Stewards.

It is proper for the Worshipful Master to appoint a committee of one or two Past Masters of the Lodge to salute the visiting Grand Officer before he enters the Lodge, and to present him to the Worshipful Master. The brethren so appointed will take their places immediately behind the Stewards. The Deacons will stand within the door of the Lodge and assume their duties as soon as the Grand Officer enters the door.

When the Grand Officer signifies his readiness, the procession will approach the door of the Lodge, and the Tyler, without any alarm, will open the door, advance a short space into the Lodge and at once and without awaiting permission to speak, will announce in a loud and distinct voice as follows:

The Most Worshipful the Grand Master, the Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master, or the Right Worshipful District Deputy Grand Master, as the case may be. He will then retire and close the door when the visiting officer has entered.

As soon as the announcement is made, the Worshipful Master will call up the Lodge.

The procession will proceed to the west side of the Altar, and will open the ranks so that the visiting officer may stand in front of the Altar.

He will then be introduced and saluted with the Grand Honors.

The Grand Honors are as follows:

Nine for the Grand Master and Past Grand Masters.

Seven for the Deputy Grand Master, District Deputy Grand Masters, Past Deputy Grand Masters, and Past District Deputy Grand Masters.

Five for all other elected Grand Officers, and elected Past Grand Officers, and Three for all other distinguished brethren.

The Grand Honors are given as follows:

The brethren stand with hands at their sides. The first movement is to strike the thighs with the palms. The second movement is to cross the arms over the breast, the left over the right, and the palms sharply striking the shoulders. The third movement is to raise the hands above the head, striking the palms together. This is repeated nine times. Then nine smart claps are given with the right palm on the left palm; nine with left on right; nine with right on left; then one, right on left; one, left on right; and one, right on left; stamping the right foot with each of the single claps.

The Worshipful Master will then address the visiting Grand Officer with words of welcome, and invite him to the East. The visitors will then take such place as may be indicated by the Worshipful Master. When the visiting Grand officer approaches the East, the Worshipful Master will vacate his station and deliver the gavel. When a Grand Officer presides in a constituent Lodge, the Worshipful Master of the Lodge has the right to a seat at his right hand.

Reception Without Form

In this case, a Past Master will be appointed to attend the visiting officer and introduce him. The officer conducts him to the west of the Altar, and says:

Worshipful Sir, I have the pleasure of introducing to you Most Worshipful Brother or Right Worshipful Brother -----.

The Worshipful Master calls up the Lodge, and says:

Most Worshipful Brother or Right Worshipful Brother -----, it gives me pleasure to introduce to you the members of ----- Lodge, No. -----, and to welcome you among us. Kindly take a seat in the East.

Reception of Visiting Brethren

When a brother visits a Lodge, and has been examined and vouched for, the Worshipful Master will send a Past Master or the Senior Deacon to introduce him. The officer conducts him to the west of the Altar, and says:

Worshipful Sir, I have the pleasure of introducing to you Brother ----- of ----- Lodge, No. -----.

The Worshipful Master calls up the lodge, and says:

Brother -----, it gives me pleasure to introduce to you the members of ----- Lodge, No. -----, and to welcome you to a seat among us. We meet on -----, and shall be very glad to welcome you to any of our meetings.

If the visitor is a Worshipful Master or a Past Master, he should be invited to a seat in the East.

The Worshipful Master should see that the proper courtesies are extended to visiting brethren, to make them feel that they are welcome.

NOTE: Upon the entrance of a Past Master of the Lodge the brethren should be called up out of courtesy and the Worshipful Master may invite him to a seat in the East.

Burial Service

General Regulations

A Mason cannot be interred with the formalities of the Order, unless it be at his own request, or that of some member of his family, communicated to the Worshipful Master of the Lodge of which he died a member; foreigners and transient Brethren excepted.

None but Master Masons can be buried with Masonic Honors. From this rule there is no exception.

A Master Mason is not entitled to Masonic burial unless he be a member in good standing of some Lodge.

Fellow Crafts or Entered Apprentices while not entitled to Masonic burial, may join Masonic procession on such occasions.

A Lodge may not unite in the funeral service or procession of a person not a Mason.

The Worshipful Master of a Lodge, having received a notice of a Master Mason's death, and a request that he be interred with the Ceremonies of the Order, and being himself satisfied of its propriety, fixes the day and hour for the funeral and issues his command to summon the Lodge. He may invite as many Lodges as he thinks proper; and the members of those Lodges may accompany their officers in form, but the whole ceremony must be under the direction of the Worshipful Master of the Lodge to which the deceased belonged, and he and his officers must be duly honored and cheerfully obeyed on the occasion, except where the M. W. the Grand Master, or in his absence, the R. W. Deputy Grand Master, is present and exercises his authority. In case the deceased was not a member of any of the attending Lodges, the procession and ceremony must be under the direction of the Worshipful Master of the oldest Lodge.

The Brethren who walk in procession should observe, as much as possible, uniformity in their dress. They should wear dark clothes, white gloves, and a sprig of evergreen in left lapel of coat. No person should be distinguished by a jewel unless he is an officer of one of the Lodges invited to attend in form. Masonic clothing must not be worn at a funeral unless a Lodge has been regularly opened.

In the procession, both to and from the grave, the different Lodges rank according to their seniority: the junior ones preceding, excepting that the Lodge of which the deceased was a member, walks nearest the body. Each Lodge should form one division. Members of Chapters and preceptories must appear as Master Masons only, except when Knights Templar act as an escort, in which case they may appear in the uniform of that Order. A Brother should not leave his place in the procession without the permission of the Worshipful Master.

When the procession arrives at the gate of the cemetery, the Lodge to which the deceased Brother belonged, as well as the mourners and attendants on the body, halt until the members of the other Lodges have formed a square about the grave, when an opening is made to receive them. Then they advance to the grave, and on arriving at its foot, the procession reverses, when the clergyman and officers of the acting Lodge take their station at the head of the grave, and the mourners at the foot. The Masonic service does not begin until the other services, if any, are concluded.

When the M. W. the Grand Master, R. W. Deputy Grand Master, a Past Grand Master, or either of the Grand Wardens, joins the procession of a private Lodge, proper respect is to be paid to the rank of such officer. His position will be immediately before the Worshipful Master of the Lodge, and two Deacons will be appointed to attend him, the Deacons, with rods, walk on his right and left. When the M. W. the Grand Master or R. W. Deputy Grand Master is present, the Book of Constitution will be borne before him. the honor of carrying the Book of Constitution belongs to the Worshipful Master of the oldest Lodge in the jurisdiction if he be present. The Book of Constitution must never be borne in a procession unless the Grand Master or Deputy Grand Master be present.

When the procession faces inward, the Deacons and Stewards will cross their rods so as to form an arch for the Brethren to pass beneath.

Directors of Ceremonies should walk on the left flank (side) of a procession.

NOTE—The Masonic procession precedes the hearse or the coffin until they counter-march at the cemetery.

THE CHARGES

Charge to Newly Initiated Candidate

As you have now passed through the ceremony of your initiation, allow me to congratulate you on being admitted a member of our ancient and honorable society. Ancient, as having subsisted from time immemorial, and honorable because by a natural tendency it conduces to make all those honorable who are strictly obedient to its precepts. Indeed no institution can boast a more solid foundation than that on which Freemasonry rests—“The practice of every social and moral virtue,” and to so high an eminence has its credit been advanced, that in every age, monarchs themselves have been promoters of the art; have not thought it derogatory from their dignity to exchange the septre for the gavel; have patronized our mysteries and joined our assemblies. As a Mason, I would first recommend to your most serious contemplation the volume of the sacred law, charging you to consider it the unerring standard of truth and justice, and to regulate your actions by the divine precepts which it contains. Therein you will be taught the important duties you owe to God, to your neighbour and to yourself. To God, by never mentioning His name but with that awe and reverence which are due from the creature to the creator, by imploring His aid on all your lawful undertakings, and by looking up to Him in every emergency for comfort and support; to your neighbour by acting with him on the square; by rendering him every kind office which justice or mercy may require, by relieving his distresses, by soothing his afflictions, and by doing to him, as in similar cases, you should wish he should do unto you; and to yourself, by such a prudent and well regulated course of discipline as may be best conduce to the preservation of your corporeal and mental faculties in their fullest energies: thereby enabling you to exert those talents wherewith God has blest you, as well as to His glory as to the welfare of your fellow creatures.

As a citizen of the world, I am next to enjoin you to be exemplary in the discharge of your civil duties by never proposing, or at all countenancing, any act that may have a tendency to subvert the peace and good order of society; by paying due obedience to the laws of any state which may for a time become the place of your residence or to afford you its protection and above all, by never losing sight of the allegiance due to the sovereign of this nation, ever remembering the obligation of loyalty which you owe to our Queen and Country.

As an individual I am further to recommend the practice of every domestic as well as public virtue. Let prudence direct you; temperance chasten you; fortitude support you; and justice be the guide of all your actions, and be especially careful to maintain in their fullest splendor those truly Masonic ornaments benevolence and charity.

Still, however, as a Mason there are other excellencies of character to which your attention may be peculiarly and forcibly directed; among the foremost of these are secrecy, fidelity and obedience.

Secrecy may be said to consist in the inviolable adherence to the obligations you have entered into, never improperly to reveal any of those Masonic secrets which have now been, or may at any future time be, entrusted to your keeping, and cautiously to shun all occasions which might inadvertently lead you so to do.

Your fidelity must be exemplified by a strict observance of the Constitution of the Fraternity by adhering to the ancient landmarks of the Order; by never attempting to extort, or otherwise unduly obtain the secrets of a superior degree, and by refraining to recommend any one to a participation of our secrets, unless you have strong ground to believe that, by a similar fidelity, he will ultimately reflect honor on our choice.

So must your obedience be proved by a close conformity to all our laws and regulations; by prompt attention to all signs and summonses; by modest and correct demeanour whilst in the Lodge; by abstaining from every topic of religious or political discussion; by ready acquiescence in all votes and resolutions duly passed by the brethren and by perfect submission to the Master and his Wardens whilst acting in the discharge of their respective offices.

And, as a last general recommendation, let me exhort you to dedicate yourself to such pursuits as may enable you to retain respect in your rank in life, be useful to mankind, and an ornament to the society of which you have been this day admitted a member; to devote your leisure hours more especially to the study of such of the liberal arts and sciences as may lie within the compass of your attainment, and without neglecting the ordinary duties of your station, to consider yourself called upon to make a daily advancement in Masonic knowledge.

From the very commendable attention which you appear to have given to this charge, I am led to hope that you will duly appreciate the excellence of Freemasonry, and imprint indelibly on your mind the sacred duties of "truth, of honor and of virtue."

Charge to the Newly Passed Candidate

Brother,- Being advanced to the Second Degree of Masonry, we congratulate you on your preferment. The internal and not the external qualifications of a man are what Masonry regards. As you increase in knowledge, so you will consequently improve in social intercourse. It is unnecessary for me to recapitulate the duties, which, as a Mason, you are now bound to discharge, or to enlarge on the necessity of a strict adherence to them, as your own experience must have established their value. It may be sufficient to observe that as your past behaviour and regular deportment have merited the honor which we have conferred, in your new character it is expected that you will not only conform to the principles of the Order but steadily persevere in the practice of every virtue. The study of the liberal arts, that valuable branch of education which tends so effectually to polish and adorn the mind, is earnestly recommended to your consideration—especially geometry, which is established as the basis of our art. Geometry or Masonry, originally synonymous terms, is of a divine or moral nature enriched with the most useful knowledge, so that while it proves the wonderful properties of nature, it demonstrates the more important truths of morality.

As the solemnity of our ceremonies requires a serious deportment, you are to be particularly attentive to your behaviour at our regular assemblies. You are to preserve our ancient usages and customs sacred and inviolable, and induce others, by your example, to hold them in due veneration.

The laws and regulations of the Order you are strenuously to support and maintain. You are not to palliate or aggravate the offences of the brethren, but in the decision of every trespass against our rules judge with candor, admonish with firmness and reprehend with mercy .

As a Craftsman, in our private assemblies, you may offer your sentiments and opinions on such subjects as are regularly introduced in the lecture, under the superintendence of an experienced Master who will guard the landmarks against encroachment. By this privilege you may improve your intellectual powers; qualify yourself to become a useful member of society; and like a skillful Craftsman, strive to excel in what is good and great.

You are to encourage industry and reward merit; supply the want and relieve the necessity of brethren and fellows to the utmost of your power and ability, and on no account wrong them or see them wronged, but apprise them of approaching danger, and view their interests as inseparable from your own.

Such is the nature of your engagements as a Craftsman; and these duties you are now bound, by the most sacred ties, to observe.

Charge to the Newly Raised Candidate

Brother,—Your zeal for the institution of Freemasonry, the progress you have already made, and your conformity to our general regulations, have pointed you out as a fit object of esteem and favor. In the character of a Master Mason, you are henceforth authorized to correct the errors and irregularities of your younger brethren, and guard them against a breach of fidelity. To improve the morals and correct the manners of men in society ought to be your constant care. You are to inculcate universal benevolence, and by the regularity of your own behaviour, afford the best example for the conduct of others. The ancient landmarks of the Order you are to preserve sacred and inviolable, and never suffer an infringement of our customs, or a deviation from established usages.

Duty, honor and gratitude now bind you to your trust; let no motive, therefore, ever make you swerve from your duty, but be true and faithful, and imitate the example of that celebrated artist whom you have once represented. Endeavor, in a word, to convince the world that merit has been your title to our privileges, and that on you our favors have not been undeservedly bestowed.

 5. At home and in your neighborhood.
 6. Towards a strange Brother.
- VII. Ancient Charges—To the Master-Elect.

The Charges of a Freemason, Etc.

1. Concerning God and Religion

A Mason is obliged by tenure to obey the moral law, and if he rightly understands the art he will never be a stupid atheist, nor an irreligious libertine. He, of all men, should best understand that God seeth not as man seeth, for man looketh at the outward appearance, but God looketh to the heart. A Mason is, therefore, particularly bound never to act against the dictates of his conscience. Let a man's religion, or mode of worship, be what it may, he is not excluded from the order, provided he believe in the Architect of heaven and earth, and practice the sacred duties of morality. Masons unite with the virtuous of every persuasion, in the firm and pleasing bond of fraternal love; they are taught to view the errors of mankind with compassion, and to strive by the purity of their own conduct to demonstrate the superior excellence of the faith they may profess. Thus Masonry is the centre of union between good men and true, and the happy means of conciliating friendship amongst those who must otherwise have remained at a perpetual distance.

II.—Of the Civil Magistrate, Supreme and Subordinate

A Mason is a peaceful subject to the civil powers wherever he resides or works, and is never to be concerned in plots and conspiracies against the peace and welfare of the nation, nor to behave himself undutifully to inferior magistrates. He is cheerfully to conform to every lawful authority; to uphold on every occasion the interest of the community, and zealously promote the prosperity of his own country. Masonry has ever flourished in times of peace, and been always injured by war, bloodshed and confusion, so that kings and princes in every age have been much disposed to encourage the craftsmen on account of their peaceableness and loyalty whereby they practically answer the cavils of their adversaries, and promote the honor of the fraternity. Craftsmen are bound by peculiar ties to promote peace, cultivate harmony and live in concord and brotherly love.

III.—Of Lodges

A lodge is a place where Freemasons assemble to work and to instruct and to improve themselves in the mysteries of their ancient science. In an extended sense, it applies to persons as well as to place; hence every regular assembly, or duly organized meeting of Masons is called a lodge. Every brother ought to belong to some lodge, and be subject to its by-laws and the general regulations of the Craft. A lodge may be either general or particular, as will be best understood by attending it, and there a knowledge of the established usages and customs of the Craft may be acquired. From ancient times no master or fellow would be absent from his lodge, especially when warned to appear at it, without incurring a severe censure; unless it appeared to the Master and Wardens that pure necessity hindered him.

The persons made Masons and admitted members of a lodge must be good and true men, free born, and of a mature and discreet age and sound judgement, no bondsmen, no women, no immoral or scandalous men, but of good report.

IV.—Of Masters, Wardens, Fellows and Apprentices

All preferment among Masons is grounded upon real worth and personal merit only, that so the lords may be well served, the brethren not put to shame, nor the royal Craft despised; therefore, no Master or Warden is chosen by seniority, but for his merit. It is impossible to describe these things in writing, and therefore every brother must attend in his place, and learn them in a way peculiar to this fraternity. Candidates may, nevertheless, know that no Master should take an apprentice, unless he has sufficient employment for himself; and unless he is a "perfect youth, having no maim or defect in his body," that may render him incapable of learning the art, of serving his master's lord and of being made a brother and then a fellow-craft in due time, after he has served such a term of years as the custom of the country directs; and that he should be descended of honest parents, that so, when otherwise qualified, he may arrive to the honor of being a warden, and then the master of the lodge, the grand warden, and at length the grand master of all the lodges, according to his merit.

No brother can be a warden unless he has passed the part of a fellow-craft, nor a master until he has acted as warden, nor a grand warden until he has been master of a lodge, nor a grand master until he has been a fellow-craft before his election, who is also to be nobly born or a gentleman of the best fashion, or some eminent scholar or some curious architect or other artist, descended of honest parents, and who is of singularly great merit in the opinion of the lodges.

These rulers and governors, supreme and subordinate, of the ancient lodge, are to be obeyed in their respective stations by all the brethren, according to the old charges and regulations, with all humility, reverence, love and alacrity.

N.B.—In ancient times, no brother, however skilled in the craft; was called a master mason until he had been elected into the chair of the Lodge.

V.—Of the Management of the Craft in Working

All Masons should work honestly on working days, that they may live creditably on holy days, and the time appointed by the law of the land, or confirmed by custom, shall be observed.

The most expert of the fellow-craftsmen shall be chosen or appointed the master, or overseer, of the Lord's work, who is to be called master by those that work under him. The craftsmen are to avoid all ill language, and call each other by no disobliging name, but brother or fellow; and to behave themselves courteously within and without the lodge.

The master, knowing himself to be able of cunning, shall undertake the lord's work as reasonably as possible, and truly dispense his goods as if they were his own; nor give more wages to any brother or apprentice than he really may deserve.

Both the master and the mason receiving their wages justly shall be faithful to the lord, and honestly finish their work, whether task or journey; nor put the work to task that hath been accustomed to journey.

None shall discover envy at the prosperity of a brother, nor supplant him nor put him out of his work if he is capable to finish the same; for no man can finish another's work so much to the lord's profit, unless he be thoroughly acquainted with the designs and draughts of him that began it.

When the fellow-craftsman is chosen warden of the work under the master, he shall be true both to master and fellow, shall carefully oversee the work in the master's absence, to the lord's profit; and his brethren shall obey him.

All Masons employed shall meekly receive their wages without murmuring or mutiny, and not desert the Master till the work be finished.

A younger brother shall be instructed in working, to prevent spoiling the materials for want of judgment, and for increasing and continuing of brotherly love.

All the tools used in working shall be approved by the grand lodge.

No laborer shall be employed in the proper work of masonry; nor shall freemasons work with those who are not free, without an urgent necessity, nor shall they teach laborers or unaccepted masons as they should teach a brother or a fellow.

VI.—Of Behaviour, viz.:

I.—In the Lodge While Constituted

You are not to hold private committées or separate conversations without leave from the Master, nor to talk of anything impertinently or unseemly, nor interrupt the Master or Wardens or any brother speaking to the Master; nor behave yourself ludicrously or jestingly while the Lodge is engaged in what is serious and solemn; nor use any unbecoming language upon any pretence whatsoever; but to pay due reverence to your Master, Wardens and fellows and put them to worship.

If any complaint be brought, the brother found guilty shall stand to the award and determination of the Lodge who are the proper and competent judges of all such controversies (unless you carry them by appeal to the Grand Lodge), to whom they ought to be referred, unless a lord's work be hindered the meanwhile, in which case a particular reference may be made; but you must never go to law about what concerneth masonry, without an absolute necessity apparent to the Lodge.

2.—Behaviour After the Lodge is Over and the Brethren Not Gone

You may enjoy yourself with innocent mirth treating one another according to ability, but avoiding excess, or forcing any brother to eat or drink beyond his inclination, or hinder him from going when the occasion calls him or doing or saying anything offensive, or that may forbid an easy and free conversation, for that would blast our harmony and defeat our laudable purposes. Therefore, no private piques or quarrels must be brought within the door of the Lodge, far less any quarrels about religion, or nations, or state policy, we being only as Masons of the universal religion above mentioned; we are also of all nations, tongues, kindreds and languages, and are resolved against all politics, as what never yet conduced to the welfare of the Lodge nor ever will.

3.—Behaviour when Brethren Meet Without Strangers, but not in a Lodge Formed

You are to salute one another in a courteous manner as you will be instructed, calling each other brother, freely giving mutual instructions as shall be thought expedient, without being overseen or overheard, and without encroaching on each other, or derogating from that respect which is due to any brother, were he not a Mason; for though all Masons are as brethren upon the same level, yet Masonry takes no honor from a man that he had before; nay, rather it adds to his honor, especially if he has deserved well of the brotherhood, who must give honor to whom it is due and avoid ill-manners.

4.—Behaviour in Presence of Strangers Not Masons

You should be cautious in your words and carriage, that the most penetrating stranger should not be able to discover or find out what is not proper to be intimated; and sometimes you may divert a discourse and manage it prudently for the honor of the Worshipful Fraternity.

5.—Behaviour at Home and in Your Neighborhood

You are to act as becomes a moral and wise man, particularly not to let your family, friends and neighbors know the concerns of the Lodge, etc.; but wisely to consult your own honor, and that of your ancient brotherhood, for reasons not to be mentioned here. You must also consult your health, by not continuing together too late or too long from home after Lodge hours are passed; and by avoiding of gluttony or drunkenness that your family be not neglected or injured, nor you disabled from working.

6.—Behaviour Towards a Strange Brother

You are cautioned to examine him in such a manner as prudence shall direct, that you may not be imposed upon by an ignorant false, pretender, whom you are to reject with contempt and derision and beware of giving him any hints of knowledge.

But if you discover him to be a true and genuine brother, you are to respect him accordingly, and if he is in want you must relieve him if you can, or direct him how he may be relieved. You must employ him some days or else recommend him to be employed. But you are not charged to do beyond your ability; only to prefer a poor brother and a good man and true before any other people in the same circumstances.

Finally—All these charges you are to observe and also those that shall be communicated unto you in another way; cultivating brotherly love, the foundation and keystone, the cement and glory of this ancient fraternity; avoiding all wrangling and quarreling, all slander and backbiting, nor permitting others to slander any honest brother, but defending his character and doing him all good offices, so far as it is consistent with your honor and safety and no further. And if any of them do you injury, you must apply to your own or his Lodge; and from thence you may appeal to the Grand Lodge, at the annual communication, as has been the ancient laudable conduct of our forefathers in every nation; never taking a legal course but when the case cannot be otherwise decided; and patiently listening to the honest and friendly advice of Masters and

Fellows, when they would prevent you going to law with strangers, or would excite you to put a speedy period to all lawsuits that so you may find the affair of Masonry with more alacrity and success; but with respect to brothers or fellows at law, the Masters and brethren should kindly offer their mediation, which ought to be thankfully submitted to by the contending brethren; and if that submission is impracticable, they must, however, carry on their process of lawsuit without wrath or rancour (not in the common way), saying or doing nothing which may hinder brotherly love and good offices to be renewed and continued, that all may see the benign influence of Masonry, as all true Masons have done from the beginning of the world, and will do to the end of time.

AMEN, SO MOTE IT BE.

No member of the aforesaid Grand Lodge or of any subordinate lodge so incorporated shall have any power to assign or transfer to any person or persons whomsoever any interest which he may have to or in the funds or property of the said Grand Lodge or any subordinate lodge, and upon the decease of any such member the same shall not pass to his heirs, executors or administrators, but the same shall at all times be the property and remain under the control of the said Grand Lodge or subordinate lodge respectively and no property or stock, share or interest of any kind belonging to the said incorporated Grand Lodge or any subordinate lodge shall be subject to the payment of the private debts of any of its members nor liable to be taken in execution by any judgment creditor against any individual member or members of said Grand Lodge or any subordinate lodge.

RULINGS OF GRAND MASTERS

Approved by Grand Lodge

1. Question: In case of a Masonic Trial can the Worshipful Master of a Lodge act as counsel for the defence of the accused?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1909.

2. Question: Has a lodge the power to levy special assessment on members besides their regular annual dues, and to suspend members for the non-payment of such assessment if they pay their regular annual dues?

Answer: The Constitution makes no provision for suspension except for non-payment of dues and for unmasonic conduct. While lodges may agree to assess themselves for any worthy cause, they cannot suspend the delinquent for the above mentioned cause. Proceedings, 1916.

3. Question: Is a person eligible to become a member of a Masonic lodge by initiation, who has lost the four fingers of his left hand at the third joint, leaving the hand and thumb intact?

Answer: Yes. Proceedings, 1916.

4. Question: Is a returned soldier eligible for initiation into the Order who has lost his left arm at the shoulder?

Answer: If you have a worthy petitioner, who has lost his left arm, but who is supplied with an artificial one so that he can comply with the requirements of the work, I would favour his acceptance into Masonry. Proceedings, 1916.

5. Question: Has a lodge the power to withhold a Grand Lodge certificate from a newly raised brother until he passes a satisfactory examination in the third degree?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1916.

6. Question: Can a dispensation be granted whereby the degree of Past Master might be conferred as an honor upon a brother as a recognition of faithful service?

Answer: It is not within the power of the Grand Master to grant a dispensation to confer the Past Master's Degree (honoris causa) on any brother, however worthy he may be. Proceedings, 1916.

7. Question: Can post cards be used for lodge notices?

Answer: All notices must be sent in sealed envelopes. Proceedings, 1918.

8. A lodge cannot refuse to consider applications for membership for any stated period. An application in proper form recommended by two brethren and received by the secretary of the lodge must take its usual course. Proceedings, 1920.

9. A lodge under dispensation cannot grant a dimit to one of its members. Proceedings, 1920.

10. An Entered Apprentice cannot purchase life membership in a lodge. Proceedings, 1920.

11. Refused to grant publication of a Masonic Directory of the Province of Alberta for general distribution amongst members of the Craft. Proceedings, 1922.

12. The Worshipful Master of a lodge has always right of access to the secretary's books, and is responsible to Grand Lodge for their condition. Proceedings, 1922.

13. Refused to sanction the organization of a Masonic Club at a town where no lodge was in existence. Proceedings, 1922.

14. Question: Is a lodge entitled to a refund from Grand Lodge of dues paid on account of brethren who were granted their dimit by the lodge five years prior to the receipts of application for refund by Grand Lodge, but of which no report has been forwarded to the Grand Secretary in the meantime?

Answer: Inasmuch as the semi-annual returns are expected to contain an accurate statement of the work and business done by the lodge during the term, and that these returns are certified to by the Master and Secretary of the lodge under the seal of the same, and are accepted by Grand Lodge as being accurate, as they have no other means of obtaining this information, the lodge is not entitled to a refund under these circumstances. Proceedings, 1925.

15. Question: What is the standing of an applicant for affiliation who was accepted into membership without the usual certificate of standing or dimit accompanying his application?

Answer: An applicant admitted under these circumstances is admitted irregularly and therefore could not be considered a member. Proceedings, 1925.

16. Question: Is a ballot, which was taken in September of last year, in accordance with the requirements of our Constitution as prior to June 12th, regular, the W.M. not being aware of any change in the Constitution?

Answer: Inasmuch as the ballot was taken in accordance with the Constitution as understood by the W.M. at the time of balloting, it should stand as taken. Proceedings, 1925.

17. Question: Is a brother who has received the Past Master's degree in a Royal Arch Chapter entitled to be present while the Installed Master's degree is being conferred upon the W. M. elect?

Answer: A lodge under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Alberta can recognize only those degrees which have been conferred by lodges under this jurisdiction or, as is expressly provided for by our Constitution, by lodges under some other Grand Jurisdiction recognized by this Grand Jurisdiction. In no case will this Grand Jurisdiction admit to participation in its degrees a person who has received such degrees in a Royal Arch Chapter or in any other body conferring other than the first three degrees of Masonry. There are other reasons which cannot be fully explained, inherent in the degree of Installed Master, which would not permit of a brother being present who was not either a Past Master or one duly elected to that office.

It was therefore ruled that the brother was not entitled to sit in lodge while the Installed Master's degree was being conferred. Proceedings, 1925.

18. Question: What is the status of a brother who was formally a member of a lodge in this jurisdiction which surrendered its charter?

Answer: All members of a lodge who are in good standing at the date of the surrender of its charter and whose dues have been paid in full are entitled to and shall receive from the Grand Secretary a certificate of that fact, which certificate shall have the same effect as a dimit issued by an existing lodge. Proceedings, 1925.

19. Question: May the first degree be conferred by a lodge other than that in which the candidate was accepted?

Answer: No. The lodge accepting the applicant must confer at least the first degree. Proceedings, 1925.

20. Question: Is a brother eligible for affiliation who holds a dimit and resides outside this Grand Jurisdiction?

Answer: Yes. His place of residence does not apply in case of affiliation. Proceedings, 1925.

21. Question: Is it correct or permissible to receive written nominations as is the custom at Grand Lodge elections?

Answer: Yes. Proceedings, 1925.

22. Question: Can a Worshipful Master order a regularly put and carried resolution to be expunged from the minute book without a further resolution giving consent of his lodge?

Answer: No. Proceedings. 1929.

23. Question: Can a lodge ballot on a petitioner without his name and other particulars being first spread on the lodge notice?

Answer: No, regardless of any necessity for speedy action. Proceedings, 1929.

24. Question: Can a member of a lodge be disciplined for continuously absenting himself from his lodge meetings?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1931.

25. Question: Re notice of motion, if brother giving notice is absent, may any other brother present the motion?

Answer: Yes. Proceedings, 1931.

26. Question: Re notice of motion, in case no other brother wishes to present the motion, can matter be laid over until the following regular meeting?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1931.

27. Question: Re notice of motion, can matter be brought up again without notice of motion?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1931.

28. Question: Has a Past Master who has been made an Honorary Member of his lodge the right to vote in his lodge?

Answer: Yes. Proceedings, 1931.

29. Question: Can a lodge receive and act on an application of a candidate of foreign birth, who does not understand our language?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1931.

30. Question: Can a candidate, who has received the first degree, be passed and raised in any other Rite than that in which he was initiated?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1931.

31. Question: Can an application be received from one who has been absent from the jurisdiction for two years, during the whole of which time he was taking post graduate courses, always with the intention of returning to his position and his home. In the two years he has not been resident in any Grand Jurisdiction long enough to qualify as an applicant?

Answer: Yes. He has not acquired legal residence in any other jurisdiction, and having returned home to resume the practise of his profession, should not be regarded as having lost his standing as a resident. Proceedings, 1932.

32. Question: Is an honorary member, not previously a regular member of the lodge, entitled to vote in Lodge matters?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1933.

33. Question: Is a brother who is a Warden in one lodge and a member in another, eligible for the office of Master in the other lodge?

Answer: No. He could not hold the office of Master in both lodges at the same time. Proceedings, 1934.

34. Question: Can a lodge charge a candidate with a physical defect the fee charged by Grand Lodge for dispensation in addition to the regular initiation fee?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1934.

35. Question: Can a lodge use a loose-leaf binder for the permanent record of the minutes in typewritten form?

Answer: Yes. Proceedings, 1934.

36. Question: In the case of a number of lodges using the same lodge room, may the lodge charters be hung permanently in the lounge room adjoining the lodge room?

Answer: No. The charter must be present in the lodge room when the lodge is meeting. Proceedings, 1934.

37. Question: Can a lodge hall be dedicated to Masonry when it is used by other organizations for purposes other than Masonic?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1934.

38. Question: Would the acceptance of promissory notes by a lodge, on account of dues owing by members, entitle said members to up-to-date receipts?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1935. Such notes did not in themselves pay the debt and entitle the brethren to up-to-date receipts, and that only final settlement of the notes would entitle them to such receipts.

39. Question: Is it necessary that nominations should be submitted for the office of Master or other elective offices of the lodge?

Answer: No. The election of officers of a lodge shall be annually by ballot, whether nominations are made or not. Proceedings, 1936.

40. Question: Is it necessary that notice of motion be given to confer life membership for distinguished services rendered?

Answer: Yes. Proceedings, 1936.

41. Question: In the re-election of a Master of a lodge, is it necessary that the ceremony of installation be conducted irrespective of he having already been installed?

Answer: Yes, but the Installed Master's work need not be repeated in full. Proceedings, 1936.

42. Question: Can a lodge receive and act upon a petition for initiation from an unmarried applicant living without the jurisdiction although his parents' home is located within the territory of the lodge?

Answer: No. Such applicant's residence was where he lived, worked and exercised his franchise. Proceedings, 1936.

43. In the case of a travelling salesman who had not lived continuously in the one place long enough to qualify for membership, ruled that the place from which he worked and from which he received his regular mail should be considered as his place of residence, which was within the jurisdiction of the lodge. Proceedings, 1937.

44. Ruled in the case of an Entered Apprentice who had been initiated in the Canadian Working in this jurisdiction and removed to the United States before being passed, and who had no intention of returning to Alberta, that he could receive his second and third degrees, on the usual request being made, in a different Working. Proceedings, 1937.

45. Question: Can a temporary honorary membership be granted to an unaffiliated brother?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1937.

46. Ruled, that a lodge having paid the $5.00 registration fee for an Honorary Member who hailed from another Grand Jurisdiction, but who resides within the jurisdiction of the lodge, is not required to pay semi-annual dues to Grand lodge for such member. Proceedings, 1938.

47. A lodge having spread on its summons for a regular meeting a notice stating that no regular meetings be held in two consecutive months, it was ruled that such motion was not in order, the charter having stated the regular meetings of the lodge. (If a lodge fails to hold its regular monthly meeting it is simply a default.) Proceedings, 1938.

48. Question: Can a lodge by by-law or otherwise fix the fee for initiation or affiliation to include the regular lodge dues for the current year, or one year from the date of membership?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1938.

49. Ruled, that a lodge could not give a discount on dues if paid before a certain date without amending their By-laws to permit this. Proceedings, 1938.

50. A lodge cannot postpone or adjourn a meeting. Therefore it was ruled that a lodge in postponing its regular meeting to a subsequent date and calling it an adjourned meeting, transacting business which can only be done at a regular meeting was in error, and the business done at such meeting must be confirmed at the next regular meeting and the minutes of the previous regular meeting again read and confirmed. Proceedings, 1939.

51. Question: Can the suspension of a member be cancelled from the records on his reinstatement?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1939.

52. Ruled, that a regular meeting of a lodge at which none of the principle officers were present was irregular and any business transacted was null and void, the business done to be reintroduced and dealt with at the next regular meeting. Proceedings, 1939.

53. Ruled, that a candidate for initiation who by the nature of his employment was absent from his home for six months of the twelve preceding his application, should be regarded as a resident where his established home was situated and the lodge could receive his application. Proceedings, 1939.

54. Question: Can a lodge join, as such, a Masonic Association in another Grand Jurisdiction, over which the Grand Master or Grand Lodge of Alberta has no authority?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1939.

55. Question: In the case of a brother applying for life membership, whose membership had been broken by suspension N.P.D., can the payment of an amount equal to dues for the period of his suspension, cancel the fact that his continuous membership had been broken?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1940.

56. In the case of two officers serving in England, residents of Alberta, who desired to make application to an Alberta lodge near their home, it was ruled that a lodge could not receive and act on petitions for membership of applicants whose homes were in Alberta but who were stationed in England. Proceedings, 1941.

57. That members of the Armed Forces who hail from other Jurisdictions, regardless of whether they comply with the twelve months' residence clause, have no legal residence status in our Jurisdiction. They are still domiciled in the Jurisdiction from which they hail. And no application shall be received except by permission of the Grand Master when Waivers must be obtained from their home Jurisdiction and after residence clause has been strictly adhered to.

58. Question: Is it proper for the Worshipful Master to cast one ballot for an elective office on a motion moved and seconded and passed by the Lodge?

Answer: No. Proceedings, 1943.

59. Question: Is the Collective Ballot permissible, that is, one ballot taken for a number of candidates?

Answer: No. An individual ballot must be taken on each Candidate—where several ballot boxes are used with the name of the applicant plainly marked on each box—this is considered an Individual Ballot. Proceedings, 1949.
